Lehmann Dial Lock 57

9999 possible combinations from which you can select your personal code - which you can change at any time. Four dials interact precisely to offer you keyless access, with integrated scramble feature which automatically resets the dials to disguise your personal code. That is real security.

The key is in your mind, so no need to carry the key with you - no risk of losing the key. And if you forget your personal code? No problem, emergency opening feature and code refine function are included. That is real convenience.

The dial lock will fit into wood, steel or glass materials. That is real flexibility.
